JANUARY 2015

It has been a couple of months since the last Barker. I am sorry but life has it's ups and downs and mine this last month has been more down than up.

However, we had our small but very social xmas party at Angelo's. Gift giving was unusual this year as everyone seemed satisfied with the gifts they picked from under the tree and there was no stealing!!! The elections were held and the Slate was accepted and past. Info on that on page 2 with the minutes.

The next big event, as you all know is the Cluster Show January 10th to 12th. Our day this year is Saturday and the entry is very nice, 2187. This is a little over from last year's 2137 on a Saturday. Thank you to those of you who volunteered to Steward and do the Club Table duties. Of the 2 Shows we do each year, this is the biggest as far as money making goes. Especially this year as our moving to a new location for summer will take some time to build into a better entry. We are taking an Ad in the catalog, to make the announcement that we are moving. The Judge's dinner will be combined with the Cluster this year on Saturday evening. Those who would like to attend please contact Laura so we have a head count to give the Cluster Hospitality person.

Laura Young, Secretary

An explanation, Susan Plouff had withdrawn her name from the Slate for Treasurer. Jan Leikum had been nominated from the floor at the November Meeting.

Wishes You and Yours
A Joyous Holiday Season
And a Happy and Prosperous New Year

This greeting came from the American Kennel Club complete with a painting of a dog. However, my attempts to copy and paste the painting didn't work. I'm sure they fix it that way so people won't copy a famous picture for no payment. However, as they made us the wish for a prosperous New Year I thought I would pass it on.

From the new Officers' and Board, We hope your Christmas was Jolly. And your New Year's is Bright. Hope to see many of you at the Show. We can always use extra hands. Next meeting not till February. At the same place, same same time and the 2nd Wed. the 11th.
